

The background of the image is a close-up photograph of various plants. In the foreground, there are several thin, brownish stems with small, dark purple, spiky flower heads. Behind these, there are more green stems and leaves, some of which are out of focus. The overall lighting is bright, suggesting a sunny day, and the colors are vibrant. The text is overlaid on this background in a white, serif font.

2nd Chronicles 14:08 And Asa had an army of men that bare targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and fourscore thousand: all these were mighty men of valour.
