

A close-up photograph of a single, large, vibrant pink rose. The rose is in full bloom, with many layers of petals visible. The petals have a rich magenta color with some lighter, almost white, variegation. The rose is set against a background of dark green, serrated leaves. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the petals. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font, centered horizontally and spanning most of the vertical space.

Numbers 23:13 And Balak said unto him, Come, I pray thee, with me unto another place, from whence thou mayest see them: thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all: and curse me them from thence.
