

The background of the image is a close-up photograph of several tall, slender stems of pink flowers, possibly Salvia or a similar species. The flowers are small and numerous, arranged in dense, elongated clusters along the stems. The leaves are green and narrow. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting a garden or field setting. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font, centered horizontally and spanning most of the vertical space.

Numbers 04:41 These are they that were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, of all that might do service in the tabernacle of the congregation, whom Moses and Aaron did number according to the commandment of the LORD.
